Figure 1. The effect of the concentration of the Agrobacterium suspension on the transformation efficiency of Agrobacterium strains. The Agrobacterium strains were grown in the YEA medium for 24 h at 28 °C. The cell concentration of the Agrobacterium strains was adjusted to 10⁸ cells/ml. The Agrobacterium strains were then mixed with the plant cells and cocultured for 48 h. The transformation efficiency was determined by the number of transformants per 10⁶ cells. The data were expressed as the mean ± SD of three independent experiments.

DEPCON VIII will be held in alternate during the summer of 1974. The site will be in New York in late June or in Chicago on August 15, 16 and 17, which site would you prefer? Please send a comment with your Diplomacy move as to which site you would prefer.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

THE I.D.A. ELECTRONICS

The problem of the 1975 I.D.A. elections have been many this year. They have centered around the qualifications of some of the candidates. Ironically, the fact that some candidates were not qualified to run as a result of the I.D.A. constitution, the constitution was being ignored in the name of "loyalty" and "lack of voters". As of tonight the election results are being withheld by Doug Schwartz until "the matter is settled". In short we find rules meaning nothing. If we accept the attitude of the process involved. Thus apathy towards the foundation of the constitution or reverting to the old way for the I.D.A. leads to chaos. True, the constitution is faulty, but then if change is to come, we adopt a new constitution, you don't ignore it, for then what will be the result?

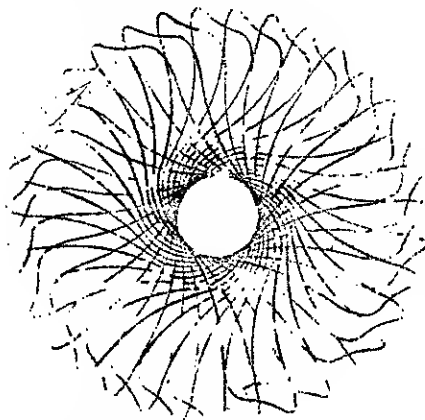

Qualifications for all voters should not be allowed on the ballot period. South Africa has no right to vote on the ballot period. Doug was asked to COUNT votes and not to count the number of votes.

President/Board of Directors system, or a President with veto power, a legislative group and a judicial group. In either system workers should be hired or recruited by the executive. Asking the legislature to execute and work is a mistake.

I don't know who has won the IDA presidency. I viewed the race for president with myself as a dark horse. If Edi wins he will have my support. I hope all other losing candidates will still offer their services to help the organization to help the members.

ALL OVER BUT THE SHOUTING, ENGLAND NEVER COMES TO LIFE AGAIN!

Since England, even if played, can not recover (even in cooperation with Italy) I'll declare this game ended. A protest will be honored, of course.

From, THE WITCHSTONE, by Victoria Graham Eyraud, V3289, 1974

"His lips moved silently as he read it. 'The Spell will take Effect at Midnight,...' With every reading he was struck again by the incredible simplicity of those words, whose calm, understated surface hid a brutal and fantastic reality, the proportions of which even he was scarcely able to comprehend. They ravished the soul out of him as some old line of poetry, whose measured beauty can unleash a whole rich tumultuous sea of barely hinted emotions, will cause an unsuspecting reader to catch his breath in delight. But where the poetry reader's delight is innocent, the wizard's was not. For the whole cause of his delight in the words lay in the juxtaposition of their simplicity with the reality that he meant to give them by his own hand and art, the reality of anguish and destruction, the inflicting of new wounds to heal old scars. He felt the old thrill of lust go through him, the promise and anticipation of that terrible blossom's unfolding, whose closed curled petals had begun to tremble and swell with life as the night of their opening drew nearer."

Isn't that exquisite? Why don't you write press like that Cleo?

An open letter to Mr. Wolf, Pieloch and Ryan -- and all players who may benefit.

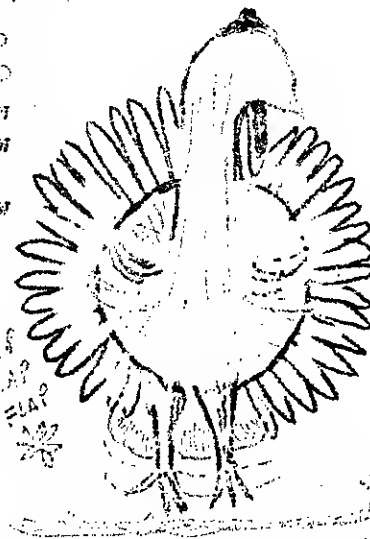

Alas, not everyone can win the game of Diplomacy in which he is playing. Yet, since you have paid your game fee you should continue to play. In addition you owe the other players something! They want to enjoy the game as much as you do. Yet when you drop out and throw play-balance to hell and back you ruin the game for them. Part of the ego trip in Diplomacy is winning by skill and craft. If your opponent (or worse, your ally) just ups and drops dead on you the game loses some of its fun and flavor. It should also be noted that if you plan to play in other Diplomacy games that your failure to finish other games will hurt you! If you are a quitter why should someone else ally with you? Look at 1971 DV in this magazine. Russia was handed a win on a silver platter when Brian Kelly could not get his act together and either move or at least resign. Brian ruined the game for Harry Drews because maybe Harry could have gotten a 3 way draw out of it. REMEMBER A DRAW IS NOT A LOSS. 2nd place is a loss, as is any position in which you do not win or draw. Even with a few pieces you can sometimes draw. At least you can befriend an ally or get revenge on an enemy. If you just quit you throw your game fee away, and you take some of the fun out of the game for someone else. Let's ALL get our moves in next time, okay?

Some interesting positions in that game
 Winter 1901

Austria A BOH, A SER
 England F LVP, F NTH, A NWY, F BAR
 France F BRE, F MAR, F IRI, A POR, A BEL
 Germany F KIE, A MUN, A BER, F HOL, A DEN, A VIE
 Italy F NAP, A VEN, A TRI, F ION
 Russia A MOS, F SWE, A GAL, A UKR, F SEV
 Turkey F CON, A BUL, F ANK, A ARM

Note especially the Italian position. Greece can not be protected from Turkish capture. If Bul is bounced Aeg is lost. If Aeg is bounced Gre goes by default. However, Aeg can be contested. A Gre can not, after all, support F Con-Aeg! Further observe the tri-power cooperation move; A Ber-Sil, A Mun-Boh With A Vie, A Gal does not move, A Ven-Tyo. This destroys The Austrian A Boh and the threat of the piece. This pair of moves gives Italy excellent play. His real move A Tri(s)R A Gal-Boh(NSO!), A Ven(s)ATri!?, F Ion-Gre, F Nap-Ion doomed him in later play.

Winter 1902

Austria A TYO (still alive!)
 England F LVP, F SKA, F BAR, A STP
 France F MAO, F BRE, F MAR, F ECH, F LON, A BEL, A SPA
 Germany F NTH, F HEL, A DEN, A MUN, A BOH, A VIE
 Italy F NAP, F TUN, A VEN, A TRI, F APU
 Russia A WAR, F SWE, A MOS, A BUD, A RUM, F SEV
 Turkey F SMY, A GRE, A BUL, F AEG, F ANK

Especially note the English position. Nothing can stop the capture of Edin via F Nth (C) A Den-Edin. Also Lvp can be saved by F Lvp - Iri. Stp can be held by simply keeping Bar in place and Nwy taken in two different ways. Yet England tried to keep options open towards Edi via FLvp-Cly?, F Bar-Nwg??, AStp-Liv, FSKa-Swe. That move blew Edi, Lvp and Stp!

Spring 1905

France; F NWG, A PAR, A BUR, A PIE, F NAF, F WES, F TYR, F ROM, F TUS
 Germany; F NTH, F BER, F DEN, A HOL, A MUN, A VIE, A TYO, A VEN, A TRI
 Italy; F NAP, F TUN
 Russia; A NWY, F SWE, A MOS, F ARN, F SEV, A UKR, A RUM, A GAL, A SER
 Turkey; F ION, A ALB, A BUL, F GRE, F CON
 Germany played A Mun-Boh, A Vie-Bud, A Tyo-Vie, A Tri(s)T A Alb-Ser, while Turkey played A Bul(s) A Alb-Ser, but would you believe F Gre-Aeg?? allowing Russia a retreat to Greece?

Not exactly sterling play from Italy, England and Turkey.

It should be noted that the Austrian piece prevented an earlier attack on Russia and that piece of dying by Edi Birsan changed the entire course of the game! Who said one piece can't matter?
